A number of the milk dealers in town sent out slips stating that the price of milk after July 1st would be 10c per quart. The dealers' names signed to the slip were A. A. Richardson, A. D. Cummings, Wm. Russell & Son, Scott Merrill, G. A. Bennett, Harry Lovelock and G. A. Bennett. Some controversy has arisen because Mr. Richardson's name headed the list as if he was the leader in the move. Mr. Richardson says he was willing to agree to the advance, as it is the only way to do with the present high cost of grain, but did not want people to think he was the starter of the advance price. The man who was behind the move was W. M. Russell & Son.

PUBLIC SAFETY MEASURES

There Must Be More Business Than Usual

Howard E. Coffin, of the Advisory Commission of the Council of National Defense says: "No radically new condition confronts us. State activities, road building, public works, private industries, all must go on as before. Business must be increased, labor employed and the country kept going strong. We must have successful industries if successful tax levies are to be raised."

There should be no curtailment in building and road construction. Let both public and private useful construction proceed. Production and handling of building materials and public and private construction work are fundamental industries of the country. Any tendency to suspend or postpone building projects is inconsistent with maintaining our prosperity. The country is prosperous. Building investors should not hesitate to go ahead with their plans. Railroads should spare no effort to supply the building industry with the cars needed to transport materials. Government, state, county and municipal authorities should encourage the continuance of all kinds of building. Road and street improvements in particular should go on unabated. Bad roads and streets are factors of first importance in the present high costs of foodstuffs. Never before was the improvement of highways so essential.

The lumber, brick, cement, lime, sand, gravel, stone and other building materials industries are basic. Neither Government regulations nor railroad restrictions should be imposed necessarily to interfere with them. If any action is taken which results in the protection of so fundamentally important industries, there is real danger of a surplus of unemployed labor, a surplus of railroad cars and a crippling of business that will seriously embarrass the Government in financing the war.

Keep on building!

Free Cold Pack Demonstration

The State Public Safety Committee are to start a drive instructing every housekeeper in the art of canning by the "cold pack" method. Ten demonstrators from the University of Maine are to travel over the state visiting every grange and meeting women for the purpose of conserving food. Their method is the latest idea in home canning by a simple process requiring but a few rules which if carefully followed, spells success.

Prof. George A. Yeaton is now traveling over Oxford county visiting every grange and arranging for free demonstrations by two of three competent experts. Mr. Yeaton states that the cold pack method eliminates expense and bother, for it is extremely simple if done as per directions. About all that is needed is to be preserved in this fashion, yet fear to give it a try because the boiling, cooling and boiling again process has been the set way during so many years it has become a fixture in household ethics. His duty is to open the "cold pack" idea and to start a method, approved by all government experts, that cannot fail.

Mr. Yeaton as we all know, is intensely interested in the future food problem. He has purchased food conservation, pointing out, graphically the danger ahead, on every possible occasion. In interview Monday he remarked with emphasis, "If the people do not awake to the situation while the garden stuff can be had, many will surely starve during winter. Dollars won't buy then what cannot be found. When the packing campaign starts attractive posters and the press will give dates with full information. Watch out!"

Solemn Warning Given Boys

Three Norway chaps about 14 years old were given a heart to heart talk by Judge Jones in the Municipal Court rooms, Thursday morning. This was brought about when Frank Howe, Jr., missed a canoe, Wednesday and securing a motor boat found his property and the boys enjoying the Fourth on Lake Penesseewassee.

Oars, paddles, oar lock and other boating equipment owned by Clarence Smith and George Stephenson, have mysteriously disappeared in the past few weeks, causing the owners aggravating delay and expense. This round up is expected to stop the nuisance, but future offenders will surely be caught and probably not escape so easily.

Fay Bickford of Augusta is visiting her father, Robert F. Bickford, and grandfather, Mrs. Emma J. Bickford, lower Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Everett and four of their children and their families passed the Fourth at their camp in Watford.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sharpe and child, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kimball and infant daughter, spent the holiday in Naples.

Mrs. F. N. Barker, the Misses Marjorie and Gertrude Barker and Cecil Brown passed the Fourth at the Barker farm.

Company D of Norway that has been doing guard duty about Biddeford and Saco, broke camp Tuesday and went to Augusta, where the remainder of the company have been ordered. Their future movements have not been made public, but it is well known that an intensive training campaign has been started and the guardsmen will be given full regimental instruction.

Improvements are to be immediately installed at the Main street garage under Elton Brown's management. New gas and oil tanks and air pump near the sidewalk and a large attractive sign across the front of the building are among the changes in mind.

Hose Co. No. 3, Steep Falls, held their monthly meeting, Tuesday evening instead of Wednesday evening, that being a holiday with several members away.

Private Francis A. Chandler, Co. D, is in the Trull Hospital, Biddeford, quite ill with German measles and unable to leave town with his company.

Percy Nevers, Kenneth Sloan and Clayton Purrington started Thursday morning on a 14 mile hike to a farm near the Round Spring House. They will remain until Sunday afternoon, returning home Sunday afternoon over the same route, ready for work in the toy factory Monday forenoon.

NORWAY MUNICIPAL COURT

Wm. F. Jones, Judge.

The customary prelude to the glorious Fourth was in evidence this year as the "bone dry" measures are not as yet in smooth working order.

Chester O. Holden started a celebration at his place on Water street early Saturday morning. After a visit was driven out by the vigorous use of the coffee pot and other noisy demonstrations pulled off, Deputy Sheriff Harry O. Stimson was introduced and landed the respondent in court Monday. Holden pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly, settling with a fine of $3.00 and costs. Jas. S. Wright for the respondent.

Tuesday Deputy Sheriff Stimson brought in Ralph Ryerson of Paris charged with being deaf to the world on Main street, Norway, Monday forenoon. In this case "jake" and other semi-medical figures in the episode that brought on the unbecoming condition. He pleaded guilty to being drunk and Judge Jones imposed a $5 fine with costs. Jas. S. Wright for the respondent.

Later in the day Deputy Stimson appeared with Charles W. Bell of Norway charged with being intoxicated about the South Paris railroad station. Under the circumstances the court suspended sentence.

PLENTY OF PROOF

From People You Know—From Norway Citizens

The greatest skeptic can hardly fail to be convinced by evidence like this. It is impossible to produce better proof of merit than the testimony of residents of Norway, of people who can be seen at any time. Read the following case of it: E. C. Libby, deputy sheriff, Sanborn St., Norway, says: "I had backache a great deal and it was hard to do anything. Not only that but my head ached very often. I noticed little specks before my eyes and my sight blurred. I used various medicines, but it was left for Doan's Kidney Pills to give me lasting results. Since using them, I have had no return of the complaint so I naturally have great confidence in Doan's."

Twenty-four Years Ago This Week Dr. B. F. Bradbury has been appointed by the commissioner of pensions on the board of examining surgeons.

Freeland Howe has got his new Andover boat in Lake Penesseewassee in running order. It is a beauty.

While Gertrude Jordan was in Lewiston, the Fourth, the lightning struck the house where she was stopping, injuring a sewing machine about two feet from her and doing other damage in the room. Fortunately Miss Jordan escaped, with only being slightly effected by the shock. Freeland Howe, A. E. Morrison and A. S. Hathaway attended the banquet at Hotel Wentworth last Saturday evening. Henry J. Bangs and wife started Sunday for Sabattus to visit friends in that vicinity.

Carpenters commenced to remodel the municipal court room this week.

UNITE OF NATIONAL GUARD, OXFORD AND CUMBERLAND COUNTIES

For the first time in the history of the state a unit of the National Guard is going to be organized in the western part of Oxford and Cumberland Counties. This is the 1st of the 2nd Battalion of the 1st Infantry, which is now being organized at Bridgton, and which will enroll men from there and surrounding towns within a radius of 25 miles. The places in the district are Harrison, Waterville, Casco, Standish, Sebago, Sweden, Stoneham, Stevens, Lovell, Naples, Hiram, Baldwin, Denmark, Brownfield, Parsonsfield, Cornish and Porter. Hugh W. Hastings of Fryeburg is the chief recruiting officer, but registration may also be made at the office of J. Bennett Pike in Bridgton.

Enlistments are pouring in rapidly. So far the campaign for men has centered in Fryeburg, where 26 have enrolled. Many have come in also from Lovell, Portland, Bridgton and Brownfield. It is expected, however, that within the next few days each town will have a good sized quota, signed up. Bridgton alone, where 166 men registered for the draft, will probably furnish 100 men in all. The full number for the battery is 190, and residents of Maine, whether married or single, between the ages of 18 and 45, are eligible.

The location of the Dow battery in Bridgton give an unprecedented opportunity to the young men in this part of the State. Heretofore organizations of the National Guard have been quartered in cities or large towns and only the men of those communities have benefited from them. Now, however, the boys in these towns have the chance to choose to serve in a very important and technical branch of the army. The most appealing argument is the fact that each one will be among men from his own locality.

Ball games have been held in one or two towns every evening. Already rousing meetings have heard the call to arms in Fryeburg, Hiram, Denmark and Brownfield. Friday night, June 29, an open air game was held in the postoffice square in Bridgton, where Mr. Hastings, Hon. A. A. Perry of Fryeburg, Rev. Mr. Callahan of Bridgton and J. Bennett Pike addressed the crowd and the Woodman band played patriotic airs. Lovell had a rally Saturday evening, and Fryeburg, Monday night.

Studebaker

Established 1852

More Power Less Cost

Both Series "18" Studebaker FOUR and Series "18" Studebaker SIX are noted for their great power, and especially their great power in ratio to their very low consumption of gasoline.

It has taken Studebaker four years to improve, refine and perfect the wonderful Studebaker motor. It has been solved through the experience of 250,000 cars in the hands of owners. It is only through an evolution like this, that perfection of power in ratio to fuel consumption can possibly be developed.

There are no secret processes; no basic patents; no features of design that are unknown or prohibited by patents. The Engineer can use what he wishes, but he can only know how to use the best features by continually improving, refining and perfecting—through the experience of a motor in actual service.

This is why Studebaker can truthfully claim that the design of its motor is unsurpassed in simplicity, accessibility and power. By the refinement of reciprocating parts, vibration has been reduced to an almost unobservable minimum.

The bearing areas of the motor have been enlarged and increased, giving greater durability, more strength, still further insuring smooth, vibrationless operation.

But you cannot appreciate the splendid POWER of the Studebaker car until you TRY it.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich, nutritive gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

LOCAL PICK UPS, ETC.

Moosehead Lake.

Sugar Island, Me.

Wednesday, June 27. Seven days since my last letter and with worldly possession pack including one fish am waiting for the boat to take me to Greenville.

Monday I got a postal card from C.

G. Jenness of Rochester, N. H., inviting me to attend the 17th annual outing of the N. H. Weekly Press Association, which was to be held in and about Wolfboro, N. H. on the next two days following Friday and as Grandmother and Walter didn't object, I cut short my visit here one week.

Mother had concluded the Island was too big to circumnavigate with rubber boots and Walter was willing to lay down his traps and oars for the car wheel and bottle.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenleaf, owners of the camp, expressed proper regrets and assured me I was leaving just as the best fly fishing was at hand.

In this I agree as the Tuesday's catch of Bill Burgess indicated big fish were coming to the surface. At Caribou

Point he got three "square tails" that weighed better than 12 pounds; John

Owens two smaller ones and Mr. Hall crashed with a big speckled trout some 20 minutes which freed itself on the fifth tryation in the air—I was assured the salmon would weigh six pounds and better, but the call of Mr. Jenness outweighed all this. Had made up my mind to go to Wolfboro and see the newspaper folk and inspect Tom Plant's Ossipee Mountain roads and the made-over brooks in which I fished with my father when a boy—46 years ago this month. Mother would prefer to have me keep silent on this, but somehow I have to tell the truth regardless of her notions. I made a bad break on leaving, which cost me half the cigars I had. Was foolish enough to say

I could catch a fish at the wharf before the boat left and backed it with a wagger of a cigar, I lost. Never was there a time before when I failed to get a chub or a monster sucker with properly baited hook from under the float. I handed the cigar over with the rod and a wave of the hat as I stepped aboard the boat and left Sugar Island, Moosehead Lake, for Wolfboro, Lake Umbagog, N. H.

Eleven and one-half days here at $3.00 per day, $113.50, guide two days at $5.50 per day, $11.00; tips to the waiters, $4, total $128.50. Of course the camp proprietor regretted my leaving, even though it was the eleventh time in the past ten years. I smoothed the parting over with a promise of returning next season or possibly this fall.

I caught 4 togue and 5 trout, went round the lake, visited Ripogonus Dam, saw 2 deer, a mink and a lot of set gulls—mosquitos and flies don't count

as the were not over troublesome.

Last Monday I visited Ripogonus Dam

in a gorge of that name on the West

Branch of the Penobscot where an artificial storage reservoir is made containing some billions of gallons more of water than there is in Moosehead Lake.

This I as told and presume it is true, but you can see only a small body of water at the dam but it extends back many miles.

There were six in the party and the round trip from Lily Bay and return took some four hours. It was over the best 80 miles of earth road I have ever seen in Maine. The road was made by the Great Northern Paper Co., who have mills at Millinocket and a use for the stored water.

The cement and iron that was used in the big dam came by the way of either

Rockwood or Greenville and was "skow-ed" across to Lily Bay and transported by motor truck to Ripogonus. It required some two seasons to build the road and three years the dam, which was completed in 1916.

The dam is some twelve hundred feet long and 70 feet high and sets on a solid ledge. The cost is great, but the power that could be developed here is immense and still have the water to turn the wheels at Millinocket.

The time will come when this power will be used. The electric franchise brokers of the State will let go their hold on the legislature some day and permit power to be carried where it is needed.

There are three farms on the first 18 miles owned by the G. N. P. A. Lily

Bay is the port of entry and there are large storehouses, hotel and cleared land.

Roach River and the Grant Farm are the other two about 6 miles apart. Four cattle cross this strip of good road and have to be opened and closed as they keep the horses and cows from feeding in the fields and trampling cultivated land.

I counted 40 horses in a pasture and was told there was stall room for 113 horses in the nearby barn.

The Grant Farm is base of supplies for larger works operations and I was

"OLD FARM DAYS"

In the haze of memory
In my young fading days,
Comes the shadows of alders
And the meadows sun rays,
With the rippling of brooks
Still ringing in my ears,
Seems to trip to call me back
To my farthest years.
Again I'm creeping nearer
With a hush pole big enough
To kill a king and queen.
But Dad don't know where I am
Nor did he see me go.
If he did he'd had me back
To help my brothers hoe.
The trout were biting dandy
Beside the buttermilk,
And I knew I'd have a mess
When the family yaps.
I thought Dad would forgive me
For creeping out of sight;
But he made me clean them all
Before I slept that night.
I could tell other mishaps
Of lovely fishing days
That want all so lovely;
I shan't say any more,
For once I got shamed.
Tending I didn't hear,
So when I crop again
I listened with one ear.
Say, did I ever tell you
That once my brothers played?
They thought that they, the Indians, so Bows and arrows made.
That morning brother's banister
Had lost his left hand eye,
So my brothers went hunting
To stop the victory cry.
So they chased Daddy's rooster
All around the old farm,
They were laughing, Daddy
Didn't think they meant harm.
But when they caught him
They were laughing, Daddy
So with a one-half inch blade
They shot him in the eye.
Daddy when he saw what done
Never shingled them 'till
Just took them with the rooster
Out in the Barn Yard 'till
Then they were sorrowful
Almost enough to cry.
For it took three hours
To pick that rooster dry.
*In the spring poultry has to be scalded to make the feathers slip out easy, especially old poultry that the body gets cold. Picking without scalding is called picking dry, and then the feathers have very natural tendency to stay right where they were.

BRYANT'S POND

Mrs. Nellie B. Dudley
Died at Dudley cottage, Bryant's Pond, Mrs. Nellie B. Dudley, aged 78 years, of pneumonia, after an illness of two days.

Mrs. Dudley and Dudley cottage are names known in Massachusetts, New York and as far as New Orleans, as well as in Maine, and known in a friendly way.

Mr. Dudley died in 1872, leaving her with a house and land, not enough to be called a farm. She began taking summer boarders and built up a business in that line, enlarging her house from time to time.

She was a woman of great executive ability and one of those naturally gifted with tact, pleasant appearance and agreeable social nature to be popular and made friends of her boarders, many of whom were retained as personal friends and treated her as such.

For some years her health has been failing, so she was not able to take charge of the business herself and has had relatives of a younger generation make their home with her for that purpose, but she wished to do what she could manage, and has assisted in the work of the family till a few days before the end.

She was one whom every one loved.

Mrs. Helen Soule of Portland is boarding at Mrs. Arthur Ricker's. Mrs. Soule has spent many seasons in our pleasant village. We are glad to have her with us again.

Myrtle Bacon of Hyde Park, Mass., has arrived here. She will not run the "Little Jap" for the benefit of the public as usual, but will live there and enjoy a summer's rest.

Rev. E. H. Stover held a meeting at Middle Intervale, Sunday afternoon, Roy Titus and wife accompanied him with their automobile.

There was a pretty home wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Abbott, when their daughter, Elva E. Abbott, was married to George Abbott of Rumford by Rev. E. H. Stover, using the double ring service, the immediate relatives being present. The bride couple are away for a short wedding tour. They will spend the summer in Maine, where Mr. Abbott has a position in a store. Mrs. Abbott has always lived in town and has many friends who wish them happiness and prosperity.

Last Saturday evening at the parsonage, Rev. E. H. Stover united Clinton Buck and Mildred Brown in marriage. They will make their home with his mother in Milton.

ON THE FARM

I'm thinking of the day that's passed, Of days that were too good to last, Of days when, far away from harm, I spent my boyhood on a farm.

I seem to see my mother there As she used to climb the chamber stair, And hear the tender words she said As she tucked me snugly in my bed.

Where once I started down the lane To drive the cattle home again, Back where I passed my boyhood years With cowbells ringing in my ears.

Where I started out in early life To battle with the world of strife, Where the cattle used to frisk and jump While I pumped water from the old log pump.

Where youth and freedom I possessed And with a mother's love was blessed, Where down the hill and just beyond I visited the lily pond.

Where once I hunted honey bees And sat beneath the shady trees, Where the sun shone down upon my head Where I fell asleep in a strawberry bed.

Back where I waved a last goodbye And hope they'll lay me where I die, Back among the Greenwood hills, Where I, a boy, was once a stud.

Doing, knowing naught but good, Where days and years sped on and on— Alas, they're gone, forever gone! Frederick M. Davis.

BANGOR WOMAN IS ANXIOUS TO HELP, HAS GOOD REASON

Derives Much Good From New Tanlac, Wants Others to Know of it.

"I suffered from a very weak stomach," said Mrs. A. S. Hill of 171 State Street, Bangor. "You know what a weak stomach is, I suppose."

"Yes," replied the Tanlac Man. "A weak stomach is not only very disagreeable and injurious, but unless strengthened may develop into something serious."

"But it is no longer weak," Mrs. Hill continued. "Your Tanlac has fixed it up in better shape than it has been in some time. Things are altogether different than they were a short time ago, and I am here to tell you just what your wonderful Tanlac did for me."

"These are the stories we like to hear," the Tanlac Man continued. "We know that the people of Maine will not publicly endorse a medicine or any other product unless they know full well that this medicine should be endorsed."

"As I said in the beginning," Mrs. Hill said, "my stomach was in a very weak condition. I could not retain any food, my appetite was very poor and I had long spells of sour, deadly sickness. I vomited almost continually after eating and I felt miserable both day and night. My nights were restless and I waked up in the morning feeling worse than when I went to bed the night before."

"I saw where people I knew were endorsing Tanlac and I knew they would not do this unless Tanlac was worthy of their praise, so I decided to take it."

"I noticed good results at once and I have not vomited once since I started to take Tanlac. My appetite is improving, my stomach is getting much stronger and I am now able to eat regular meals for the first time in a number of months."

"I feel much better throughout the day and when night time comes I am able to sleep eight or nine hours and get up in the morning feeling refreshed. Tanlac is certainly a great medicine and I take pleasure in recommending it to all nervous, weak, run down men and women."

B. F. SPINNEY RETIRES

Former Head of Norway Shoe Manufactory Resigns Presidency of Big Bank in Lynn

Benjamin F. Spinney has resigned as president of the Security Trust Co. of Lynn, Mass., after nearly 35 years in the position. Some of the older people of Norway remember Mr. Spinney as the pioneer shoe manufacturer of this town, and his name was at the head of the firm operating here till within four years. Mr. Spinney withdrew from active work in shoe manufacturing, some years ago, in order to give practically his whole attention to the rebuilding of the financial institution from which he has now voluntarily retired, his resignation taking effect on July 1.

He has been a director in Boston Woven Hose Co., Lynn Gas & Electric Co., and Thomas Electric Welding Co., and had active connection with a number of other big concerns in eastern Massachusetts. He has served as a director of Lynn Chamber of Commerce and has been active this year in the work of Lynn's war committee of public safety. The Lynn papers say that Mr. Spinney, despite his 85 years, is still active, and usually walks between his house and the bank, a distance of a mile and a quarter.

The bank from which he retires had liabilities and assets balanced at $5,489,417.73 according to the annual report, dated June 30. The savings department is reported separately, which adds $54,682.75. The total balance of both divisions of the bank was therefore $5,544,100.48, a sizable sum for a man of 85 or any average number of years. It is reported that Mr. Spinney feels that he is the chief person in administering and caring for it. His interests outside the bank are extensive.

Mr. Spinney retires, as he states in his letter of resignation, because he believes it to be "expedient that the control of the affairs of the bank should be in the hands of young men." Yet he is young enough to undertake a western trip of several months, and while gone to expect to partake of rough wilderness life in the Yellowstone park and the mountains of the Pacific slope.

Norway Telephone Girls' Hop

About 400 people attended the "Hello Girls' hop in Norway Opera House, Thursday evening, June 28. This was a Red Cross benefit and everybody gladly did their bit toward making it a huge success.

Patriotic decorations were tastefully arranged by Fred Cummings and assistants, and about 3000 feet of bunting decorated the stage and balcony. Red, white and blue lights added considerably to the effect. A large Red Cross flag was conspicuously displayed over the stage and above the orchestra.

Howard Shaw, piano, Harold Moore, violin and Merle Russell drums furnished excellent music with abundant encores. Fancy dances predominated but contras were given at intervals so all could enter into the spirit of the occasion. A party of the Red Cross workers at Lewiston motored here and thoroughly enjoyed the evening. Many were present from Paris Hill, Oxford and Waterford.

The telephone girls responsible for this fine time were Iva Russell, Mrs. F. A. Buswell, Mrs. F. P. Stone, Grace Whittemore, Blanch Lane, Irene Locke and Annie Thomas. All formed a united reception committee that were busy every minute during the evening, searching out strangers and making all feel at home.

He later came to the village and had the wound dressed and five stitches had to be taken.

Major and Mrs. Gard of the Salvation Army of Portland conducted services at the Congregational church, Sunday morning. Mrs. Gard rendered a solo with guitar accompaniment. Major Gard gave an interesting account of the origin and growth of the Salvation Army under the able management of General Booth and his officers. He also outlined the work which the army is doing over the whole world by many striking illustrations, showing that the work is reaching men and women who are not reached by other organizations with the sole aim of bringing them to know Christ and His teachings, to make them work for an honest living, and to become the best that is possible for men and women. The work of the Industrial Schools and the Homes were spoken of which showed the great amount of good which the Salvation Army is doing in the uplifting of mankind.

ALBANY

Guy D. Cummings was taken to the C. M. G. Hospital, Monday evening, June 25 and operated on as soon as he got there. The doctors pronounced it the worst case of appendicitis they ever saw. The appendix had burst. His father and brother were sent for at once, Albin L. Cummings got there Tuesday forenoon, his father got there Wednesday morning. The father and brother were at his bedside most of the time the last two days and witnessed his terrible suffering, and were at his bedside when he died. His two brothers who were in Dorset, Vt., came as quickly as possible with their auto, the distance being over three hundred miles. They did not get there until Thursday evening, a few hours after their brother had passed away.

In the death of Guy D. Cummings, Albany loses a worthy young man of good principle. About the time his father lost his leg he bought the Pinehill Orchard farm and was taking a large interest in orcharding. His trees were nearly all grafted, about 900 in number, which his father raised from the seed and set out and grafted the most of them. He expected to get 500 barrels the coming fall.

Guy took a big interest in packing apples. He had worked for the last two years for R. L. Cummings, and packed apples of West Paris. He packed one carload of apples of his own raising three years ago this fall, they were packed in such good shape he got a big price for them shipped across the ocean.

Three years ago he took his father to the same hospital, where he passed away. He little thought that his father would be obliged to take him there so soon. The funeral was held at the church, Saturday afternoon. Rev. M. Paul officiated. The bearers were Cecil Kimball, Roy G. Wardwell, Matchell Bird, Forest Churchill. A huge profusion of flowers covered the oak casket.

Out of town relatives present were his brother, Albin L. Cummings and wife of Abundant, Mass., his two brothers, Leslie and Raymond Cummings of Dorset, Vt., Mrs. S. J. Gould, Miss May E. Gould and James Gould of Lewiston, Mrs. Roxie French and Frank Bean of Oxford, Amos L. Bean of Auburn, Mrs. E. E. L. Farwell of Bethel, William A. Hobb of Greenwood, Miss Anna Cummings, who was up in New Hampshire, was not able to come to the funeral. There was a large audience who attended the funeral. The interment was in the Haskell cemetery near Hunt's Corner.

They came to North Waterford and spent the night with Mrs. Penfold's mother, Mrs. E. K. Shedd. Mr. Shedd carried them to camp in Grafton Notch Friday, where they spent two days, returning home Sunday. They had a fine fishing trip.

E. K. Shedd had the misfortune to break an axle of his auto Sunday, while on his way home from Grafton. There has not been much good fishing for years as now in the Notch.

Mrs. Abbie Elizabeth Allen

Mrs. Abbie E. Allen, widow of John T. Allen, formerly of Bridgton, passed away at Sandy Creek about 12:30 a. m., June 27, aged 67 years, heart trouble being the direct cause.

She was born in Denmark, April 29, 1850, the daughter of Larkin and Alice Frost. Her early years were spent in this town and here she received a liberal education. After her marriage to John T. Allen, they settled on a farm in Bridgton and resided there more than twenty years. Two years ago they came to Norway so as to be near a daughter, Mrs. Joseph P. Milliken. Mr. Allen died last May, the home was broken up and she went to Sandy Creek with a son. Mrs. Allen was a Baptist, but not affiliated with any order.

Services were held at Sandy Creek, Friday, June 29, at 1 p. m., Rev. Mr. Livingston being the officiating clergyman. The bearers were Myron L. Allen, Joseph P. Milliken, Edwin P. Lovejoy and Shirley H. Milliken. Interment in High street cemetery, Bridgton.

There are also three sisters, Mrs. J. W. Hill, Lynn, Mass., Mrs. Jennie Moulton, Newburyport, Mass., and Mrs. Bion G. Chapman, Norway. She is also survived by two granddaughters, Shirley H. Milliken, Norway and Myron E. Lovejoy, Bryant's Pond.

Notes on Raising Pigs

Perhaps an article about swine may interest your readers. First I will tell them a story. Last September I bought a hog of John Grover, weighing some 200 pounds, about to have pigs, for $30, thinking it best not to move her until she had pigs. He kept her some ten days, costing $5.00 more, making $35.00, total cost of sow and pigs. She happened to have ten. When I took her home she got out of her pen into the barn floor, smothered one in some hay somehow, leaving nine.

During the first of the winter I sold one to Dr. Bartlett, another to Irvin Bean, the two bringing $32.00. Being disappointed in not getting a litter of pigs from the sow in the spring, I sold her and one of her fall pigs to Gould and Weston, she weighing 500 and the pig 220 pounds live net, bringing $30.00, feeding about one-half the grain that she should have had, substituting apples in the place of the grain. We are eating one of the other pigs worth $30.00, leaving me five fall pigs, and now, June 1st, worth $225, four being sows with pigs. The sow and those pigs up to June 1st, were worth about $390, the apples substituting one-half the grain ration with apples, 150 bushels. I called them about 50c a bushel and they were culls at that. The cost of grain $150.

Now, I will tell you what I know about the care of swine, that, perhaps, will bear neglect more than other farm animals, still usually the better the care, the more profit they will bring if managed rightly. In the first place they should be on the ground that is pastured with what grass they want to eat like cattle. They should have a balanced ration consisting of grain and vegetables, squash and apples, the vegetable I shall call beets of any kind.

A man made this statement years ago, and I think he was right, "a acre of squashes will produce more pork than any acre of corn that ever grew."

Pigs should have plenty of water to drink and during the summer a good wallow, a big mud puddle. The feeding of beets, I don't know as it makes any difference in the nature of them, whether fed in fall or spring, but apples fed the latter part of the winter and spring are worth double than in the fall, more palatable, less acid. They will be hungry when they eat hard natural fruit in the fall. I have been getting a molasses preparation in a powder form which I think is about the right thing, all animals like sweet. I cook apples in the fall with squash and this molasses that makes sour apples sweet.

Perhaps I ought to say the grain ration fed to young pigs should be middlins mostly, perhaps a little meal, some salt every day. I have always had a little milk for young pigs.

When I worked in the shoe shop a shopmate of mine, Walter Curtis, bought a nice pig four weeks old and it was said when the pig was eight weeks old, he wasn't so large as when he bought him, having no milk.

Walter S. Buck.

A merchant relates the following: "For years I could not sleep without turning every hour. Whatever I ate caused gas and sourness. Also had stomach catarrh. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika relieved me INSTANTLY. Because Adler-ika flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICK-EST action of anything we ever sold. F. P.
